

IACC Delegations: Glimpses of Past Journeys

“A look back at our previous delegations to the US”

The Indo-American Chamber of Commerce – West India Council successfully hosted its ‘Investment & Business Delegations’ to the United States, making remarkable stops in Texas in 2023 and Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York in 2024. (Post Covid-19)

These two delegations provided an unparalleled platform for delegates to engage with top-tier stakeholders – from regional economic development officials to diplomats and distinguished dignitaries. The outcome? Strong relationships and opportunities that will pave the way for a thriving future of Indo-American collaboration.

A Vision in Motion – What became abundantly clear during these visits was the immense scope for cooperation between India and the United States. The potential for growth, trade, and investment is truly limitless.

The IACC leadership, with unwavering dedication, is committed to advancing these connections. And with this momentum, we are already gearing up for an exciting 3rd edition of the delegation to the United States in May 2025 – a journey destined to create more strategic alliances and opportunities than ever before.

Our Delegates' Experiences

Voices from the Field: Insights from Our Delegates

- Mr. Pratik Vaidya, CEO & MD, Karma Management Global Consulting Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

“It has been an enriching experience interacting with the dynamic business environment of Texas. The engagement with local chambers and county development centers was invaluable. We’re looking forward to establishing our operations in Texas soon.”

- Mr. Sanjay Verma, Founder & CEO, Sanver India Pvt. Ltd.

“Visiting US with the IACC delegation in June 2024 was an eye-opener. We gained a deep understanding of the state’s business-friendly ecosystem, and I’m excited about the potential for growth and partnership in the region.”

- Mr. Yogen Nathwani, SVP Operations, DiscoverMyBusiness, LLC.

“It was a pleasure visiting the State of Texas with the IACC delegation during the month of April 2023. Interacting with the key persons at various local chambers and county development centres helped to understand how business friendly the state is. We look forward to setting up operations in the state soon”

- Mr. Dilip Sutaria, Founder and CEO of TechnoShine Vie.

After the delegation, he is in discussion with Carrus Health of Texas. Mr. Sutaria is now in conversation with Mr. Anbu Nachimuthu, CEO of Carrus for collaboration
